Glen Road sidewalk will proceed on schedule

Despite the concern of some residents about removal of trees from their property, construction on the Glen Road sidewalk will proceed as scheduled.

Little opposition surfaced Friday afternoon at the meeting held at the highway department to air the views of those objecting to tree removal.

Twelve of an approximate 41 Glen Road residents were present. Of these, five were members of Parents Concerned For School Safety, a committee formed to promote sidewalk construction on Glen Road. They included John Biase, Inez Murray, Maureen Ahern, Harriet Lombard and Ann Vitale.

One member said there have been two serious accidents involving pedestrians on the road in recent years.

The committee has ascertained that 3,520 cars travel the road on which 300 to 400 children walk to school.

The sidewalk was originally proposed as a meandering sidewalk, although this was not specifically stated in the 1977 town meeting warrant article. Now, however, in compliance with residents' wishes, the sidewalk will be basically curbside. To date only one family has given its permission for the sidewalk to meander around trees on their property.

Because a meandering sidewalk is safer for children who walk to school, as well as less expensive and quicker to install, the town hopes other homeowners will follow suit, said Town Manager Sterling Morris in a recent telephone conversation. However, he added that the town will respect the wishes of each individual homeowner.

One woman, who did not wish to be identified, said "The town manager went out of his way at that Friday hearing to try to please everyone who was there."

Another woman expressed a viewpoint shared by many at the meeting. She said, "I want the sidewalk to go through, but I want to be sure I know what will happen to my land."

Still another homeowner volunteered to deed part of his land outright to the town.

Morris said he did not believe the situation presented an insurmountable problem. The town, he said, will hold further discussions with anyone who is still unsatisfied.

"Anyone who doesn't want a sidewalk should tell us and we won't go on their land," he said, although this would mean an interruption in the sidewalk for a distance long enough to cross the individual's property.

The Parents Concerned For School Safety said that the sidewalk was actually a saving to the town. They said that unless a sidewalk program were begun at once, they had planned to request three buses for the children which would cost $120,000 a year. A precedent for this type of action had been set, they asserted, by busing in other areas of town which were within walking limits, but were considered dangerous. Shawheen Avenue was cited as an example, where children were bused to school until a sidewalk was constructed there some years ago.

Walking tall

If all pedestrians had the balance of Frank Jason and Scott Williamson, the town wouldn't have to build sidewalks, just guard rails. The boys were walking on Burlington Avenue near the railroad bridge.

'Encore'

Everyone gets in the act, as the Wilmington Spotlighters rehearse a production number for their forthcoming dinner-theater production, "Encore." The show will be presented on Saturday, Oct. 22 at the Wilmington Sons of Italy Hall. Tickets are $10 each and are selling quickly.

Elizabeth Bartlett named Commended Student

Elizabeth Bartlett, a senior at Wilmington High School, has achieved Commended student status in the 1978 National Merit Scholarship Program.

Elizabeth's honor is the result of her outstanding performance on the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (NMQT) which was administered nationwide to high school juniors in October 1976.

She is among approximately 35,000 commended students throughout the United States, a group which represents less than two percent of the total of U.S. high school graduating class.

Although these students scored slightly below the level required to become National Merit Semi-finalists and continue in competition for scholarships to be awarded in 1978, each commended student has demonstrated exceptional academic promise.

A spokesman for the National Merit Scholarship Corp. (NMSC) said that his corporation believes the students' achievement "deserves public recognition because the nation as well as these students will be benefited by continued educational and personal development of their talents."

Although Commended students do not continue in the Merit Scholarship competition, NMSC has offered each an opportunity to have identifying information sent to two colleges of their own choosing in the hope that this will increase their opportunities for admission and financial aid.

Elizabeth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bartlett. She lives at 7 Kenwood Avenue, Wilmington.

Federal Women's Council

Nancy Clark voted Woman of the Year

Somebody recently asked Nancy Clark, "How do you do all these things?"

"I don't do them - they happen to me!" she replied.

The latest "thing" that has happened to Nancy is in recognition of some of the other "things" that "happen." Last week, she was voted Woman of the Year by the Federal Women's Council.

Nancy is the sort of person who is always involved in something. She is very much into "people" activities. It is an area where she does not seek recognition, but deserves a great deal.

She often collects various materials, for one charitable cause or another. She does not work in a formal organization in this line, but has a clique of what she calls "key people." It is a network of people who know her, and who are willing to help.

One of her projects is yarn collecting. Her fellow employees at I.R.S. in Andover, along with other people, give her yarn, which she then takes to the Senior Citizens' Drop-In Center in Wilmington. The Seniors there make the yarn into lap robes, and they are sent to hospitals. Nancy doesn't buy the yarn, and she doesn't do much knitting. She just makes it happen.

Other projects have included collecting items for an Indian School in Arizona, and for a hospital ship during the Vietnam war.

She became interested in the Indian school through Michele Cairn, a local teacher who worked in the school during a sabbatical from her job in Wilmington. Nancy collected books for children with learning disabilities, and arranged to have them shipped to Arizona.

The hospital ship project began with books, too, but it grew into a toy drive.

Two Wilmington men, Tom Wahl and Carl Guarino, were stationed on the hospital ship off DaNang, Vietnam. They wrote to Nancy, mentioning that the men hospitalized on the ship would like some books. She collected books, and sent them. Then they wrote that there were also some Vietnamese children on the ship. She then arranged with an Air Force chaplain at Hanscom Field to have the toys shipped to Vietnam, no charge.

She moved to Wilmington 25 years ago, first living in the house that is now the Methodist parsonage. Nancy is one of the more active members of the United Methodist Church. She is a member of the board of trustees of the Eastern Conference of the church.

Nancy raised 10 children, two of whom still live at home. She served one term on the Wilmington School Committee, but ran for office twice.

For a number of years, she was known as "Nosey Nancy," writing a chatty column for the Town Crier, and later for another newspaper. Even without the column, she still has her sources, and is almost a human newspaper.

For many years, she was in the real estate business in Wilmington. She first sold real estate with her husband, then in a partnership, and finally alone. She sold her business and now works for Internal Revenue.

It didn't take the people at I.R.S. long to find out what people in Wilmington have known for so many years. The vote to name her Woman of the Year was a unanimous one.

The presentation was a part of a two-day meeting on "Tomorrow's Woman" held last week at I.R.S. The Federal Women's Council is an organization of women employed in the federal government.

The Wilmington Community Fund would like to remind all walkers and those who pledged to send their money to the Wilmington Community Fund, P.O. Box 146, Wilmington, Ma.

Walkers turning in their pledges will receive their 1977 patches in three or four weeks.

Wilmington officials meet with MAPC

Wilmington officials met recently with Carla B. Johnston, executive director of the Metropolitan Area Planning Council (MAPC), at Wilmington Town Hall. The meeting was arranged by MAPC to discuss town concerns and ways MAPC can be of assistance.

Wilmington officials who attended the meeting were Town Manager Sterling Morris, Jackie Allaman, a member of the Conservation Commission; and Madelyn McKie, MAPC representative.

Among the issues discussed during the meeting were Wilmington transportation projects including road marker and sign safety, the town's identification of bicycle paths and obtaining technical assistance from MAPC to set up a real property file.

MAPC will also be assisting in some consumer education seminars on energy and water conservation.

"I hope this meeting is just the beginning of a new level of responsiveness on the part of MAPC to the regional and subregional concerns of Wilmington," said Johnston. "MAPC looks forward to the active involvement of Wilmington officials and citizens so that we can know better when and where MAPC can be of assistance."

Housing Authority announces funding for 25 new units

Wilmington is to receive 25 federally funded family housing units with a total dollar amount of $1,195,697, according to Housing Authority Chairman George Hooper.

"It is unfair to force citizens out of Wilmington who wish to live there or who have lived there all of their lives and cannot meet the exorbitant rising cost for housing on the public market," said Hooper. "Someone has to champion their cause."

Chairman Hooper along with Executive Director, Henry Borrazzo, and other members of the Wilmington Housing Authority, Lorraine Brozyna, vice chairperson; Lulu Sanborn, treasurer; Barbara Larson, assistant treasurer; and Kevin MacMillan, secretary, have worked during the past three years to bring additional housing to Wilmington.

The 25 units of federal housing will be the first substantial number of units received by the Town of Wilmington in more than 16 years.

Hooper said that although he did not receive all the units he had requested from Housing and Urban Development (H.U.D.), he was pleased by what he called a "first step."

Hooper said that approximately 200 units would be required to accommodate the elderly in Wilmington and, for this reason, he will continue to exert effort to acquire more housing in the future.

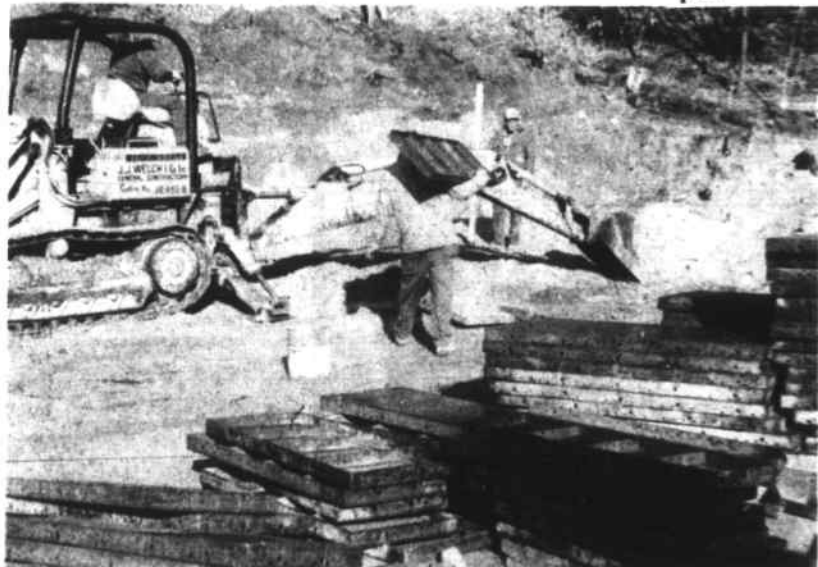

"I appreciate the effort and cooperation given to the Housing Authority by the Wilmington Board of Selectmen, the Wilmington Planning Board, and by state and federal officials," Hooper remarked. "I would be remiss if I did not thank Congressman Tsongas for his personal efforts which helped make this housing a reality."

Borrazzo said that this is an example of what continued efforts and perseverance can accomplish for a small town. Many small communities did not apply for this funding for it was their feeling that this program was mostly geared for urban areas, he said.

The pit

Health center work

Work on the new Regional Health Center in Wilmington is progressing at a good pace. Clerk of the works Jack Daniels reports that the engineers are taking extra care with the foundations, because of the unusual shape of the building. They want all the measurements to come out precisely.

The footings for the foundations are nearly finished, and as soon as wiring permits are approved, the carpenters will go to work.

Message from the priests of St. Thomas

On the second page of last week's Town Crier there appeared an advertisement under the caption of "Recognition." The priests of St. Thomas Parish wish to vehemently denounce the inferences contained in that advertisement. We do not believe that the Catholic women of the parish feel themselves frustrated by the God given responsibilities of motherhood and homemaking. It is a privilege that every woman looks forward to and is proud to be associated with.

Furthermore, the priests of the parish did not sanction the use of the name of the parish and the publisher of the paper has promised to only accept articles with the approval of the magisterium of the Church, that in this case means the pastor and the priests associated with him.

There is no group called Concerned Christians with the authorization of St. Thomas' Church, nor is there any other group within the parish founded by individuals that has a right to assume the sponsorship of St. Thomas Parish.

St. Thomas' Night November 18

St. Thomas' Night at the Chateau de Ville will be on Friday, November 18. Dinner of champagne glazed chicken will be followed by Ron Corallan starring in Fiddler on the Roof. Price will be $11.95 per person. For reservations call 658-6172.

Next Sunday, October 16, CCD High School at St. Thomas begins. All high schoolers in grades nine through 12 should attend CCD classes on the first and third Sunday of each month.

Next Sunday Father Peter Walker of Epousal Retreat House will be the guest speaker. Class will start with Mass at 7:00 in Villanova Hall and will continue with a program with Father Walker. A discussion period will follow.

October meeting

The first meeting this season of the Wilmington Women's Club will be held at the United Methodist Church on Thursday, October 20.

The executive board will serve a luncheon at noon. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Mabel Butt at 658-2221 before October 17.

Guest of honor will be Mrs. Ralph Lasalle, Eighth District Director. After the business meeting a fall fashion show will be presented by Helen A. Edwards, professional model and commentator. Models will be members of the membership committee. Baby sitting services will be available at each meeting.

Attention, artists!

The Wilmington Women's Club is looking for artists who are interested in selling their paintings. A "sacred" art sale is to be held at the Wilmington Memorial Library on December 3.

All paintings must be priced at $50 or under, whether framed or unframed. Photography may also be sold. Those who wish to participate, should contact Mrs. Herbert Fielding at 657-7463 immediately in order to reserve space or for further information.

CARD OF THANKS

Belated but heartfelt thanks to the Wilmington Rescue Squad and to the Police Department for their immediate response to our 4:30 a.m. plea for help. We are most grateful.

Michael & Doris O'Reilly

THANK YOU

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, Or sat quietly in a chair; Perhaps you sent a floral spray, If so, we saw it there. Perhaps you sent a bit of food, Or let us use your car; Perhaps it was the call you made from nearby or afar. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say; Perhaps you were not there at all, Just thought of us that day. Whatever you do to console our hearts, We thank you so much, whatever the part.

Brown Tavern dated to about 1800

Brown's Tavern, soon to be the Tewksbury office of the Andover Savings Bank, dates to an approximate date of 1800, the Tewksbury Historical Commission has determined. The building, at Tewksbury center is undergoing reconstruction at this time.

Maureen Kelly, Peggy Kolesar and Mary Novo of the Historical Commission toured the building Saturday morning, in company with others, including some bank officials.

The Historical Commission, Kelly says, has had the services of an historical architect from the New England Society for the Preservation of Antiquities, and has been told by a person who has a local knowledge of masonry that the building dates to about 1800. It is a "Federalist era" building according to the architect. The masonry is the same as that of the former Masonic Hall, recently torn down. The former Masonic building was dated some years ago at 1800.

There are two tremendous beams underlying the old tavern. They are hand hewn from chestnuts, each 32 feet long, and still in an excellent state of preservation. Chestnut, often used in colonial and post-colonial buildings, will not rot unless it becomes wet.

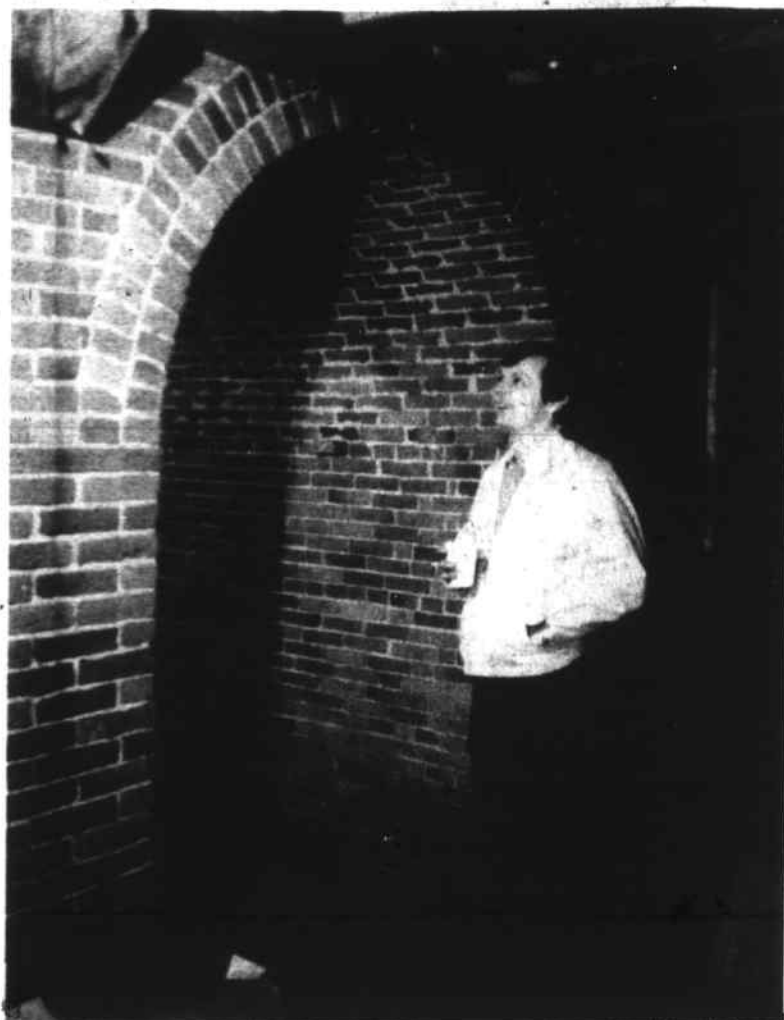

The old fireplace in the former living room is still in its original shape, but a mason has been employed to rebuild the back wall. The former Dutch oven exists in its original shape. The walls of the fireplace are straight, and do not show any influence of the studies of Benjamin Thompson (Count Rumford) originally of Woburn.

The place to study the masonry is in the cellar. The cellar now has a concrete floor, but the original brickwork, laid by an unknown mason about 175 years ago, is still in fine condition.

There are two chimneys, each with an arch to support it. The larger chimney has (of course) the larger arch in the cellar.

Both are built of a high quality brick, which perhaps was made at a site near the present K of C Hall, beside the Shawshen River. There was a brick kiln at that place prior to the War of 1812.

The mason who did the work at the Brown Tavern was probably the same man who did the later work at the Harnden Tavern in Wilmington. The style is exactly the same. The Harnden Tavern was purchased by

The great arch

The arch in the larger chimney is inspected by Bruce Westaway of Lawrence. Westaway is to be the manager of the local branch of the Andover Bank.

Dr. Silas Brown, of the Tewksbury Brown family in 1816, and the brickwork was done at about that time. There is other brickwork in Wilmington and in Bedford by that same man, whose name, unfortunately, is not known today.

Some of the boards in the old building would bring a high price today. They are broad, locally sawn, by an "up and down" saw. Possibly they were cut at the old Trull Mill, on Trull Brook. Possibly they were cut elsewhere.

A dubious gamble

The Wilmington Town Meeting, a week ago voted $15,000 to drill three wells in search of water under Cook Hill, in South Wilmington.

Cook Hill was once a volcano. Fifty years ago a Nevada company, cutting what is now Route 38 through that hill went bankrupt, because of the mixture of schist, granite and basalt, which caused the drills to bend rather than do their work.

The Monday vote was on the betterment plan. Over a period of years the three families who live on that hill will repay all the money spent to the town. That is all very good - but what if no water is found?

The schist that underlies Cook Hill is extensive. It is to be found easterly, westerly and northerly from the hill.

About 20 years ago the firm then known as National Polychemicals drilled down into that schist, in search of water. They found none. At a depth of about 1250 feet the search was abandoned.

What reason is there to believe that there will be water under Cook Hill? Possibly it would have been better to vote the people of Cook Hill a Club License.

Bantam A's cop three straight

The Tewksbury Bantam A's are into their new season with a three game winning streak (3-0) with league action on Thursday nights at the Wilmington Youth Ice Arena.

Tewksbury dropped Action 6 - 3 in their latest outing last Thursday night (Oct. 6).

The A's went ahead 4 - 1 in the opening period with Jim DiLuca netting the first goal on a Dave Wilkie assist. Robbie Richmond and Bobby Corrieri set up the second goal passing to Mike Mara for the score. Fourteen seconds later Joe Cappello hit the bump on ice feeds from DiLuca and Corrieri. Action put its first goal by Scott Boney, but later Tewksbury retaliated as John Doherty scored what proved to be the game winner on assists from Corrieri and Ricky Sheehan.

Action opened second period play with two goals, but Tewksbury came back with matching goals. Joe Cappello notched his second lampighter assisted by Robbie Richmond. Ricky Sheehan broke loose and sank the final goal on the passing exchange of Richmond and Corrieri.

During that period in a two man short situation Dave Wilkie turned in a super job to keep the puck in the Action zone.

The third period was scoreless with defensemen hard at work including Steve Bucknam, Russ Barnes and Frank Hawkes.

Up front Derek Vachon and Mike Dascoli kept a lid on the Action offense in shorthanded situations.

On Thursday night, Sept. 29 Tewksbury posted an impressive 11 - 2 victory over Peabody with five A's scoring two goals apiece.

Tewksbury went ahead 2 - 0 in the opening period when Richmond pumped his first goal unassisted. Wilkie scored his first goal to finish off a Cappello and DiLuca passing combination.

Tewksbury exploded in the second period with six goals to take an 8 - 1 lead. Mara tallied what proved to be the game winner from Mike Dascoli. Peabody came back to score their only goal in that period.

Dascoli scored from Mara and Vachon. Cappello sent home another on a Corrieri pass. Cappello scored again assisted by Wilkie and DiLuca. Richmond notched his second goal of the game picking up the fine passes of Doherty and Sheehan.

Tewksbury's sticks were still hot in the final period as they broke loose with three goals while Peabody scored once more.

Wilkie opened the period with a lampighter from Cappello and DiLuca. Doherty scored from a Richmond pass and e Mara completed the scoring with an assist going to Dascoli.

Boney played another fantastic game in the Tewksbury nets. The defensive forces were led by Bucknam, Barnes, Corrieri and Steve Spinzola who was filling in for Frank Hawkes who took a deserved game off.

Midgets A's unbeaten In recent Tewksbury Midget A hockey action, Captain Joe Jutras scored four goals with Bobby Dascoli assisting on each one and Gary Fedorchuk assisting on two as the team routed Chelmsford 10 - 1.

John Walsh scored two goals with assists by Joe Carr and Scott Isabelle. Andy DeVita, Bobby Spinzola and Joe Carr also scored for Tewksbury. Assists were credited to Paul Erickson, Gary Fedorchuk, Carr, Walsh and Jutras. Bobby Dascoli scored a goal to go along with his four assists.

John Gonzales and Bob Callisto shared the netminding chores for the winners. The win gives the team a 3 - 0 record.

Mite A news The Tewksbury Mite A's have started the new season with a 2 - 2 record.

Brian Mann, Jerry Delaney and Jeremy Duncan lead the team a shigh scorers with two goals apiece.

Goalie David Gammon recorded the first shutout of the season with a 3 - 0 blanking of Billerica.

Bantam B's blank No. Reading

Goalkeeper Ed Walsh came up with some outstanding saves as the Bantam B's cruised past North Reading 5 - 0 last week. It was the third game of the season for the Tewksbury team.

Howie Barter pumped home the first hat trick of the campaign with his first score coming in the second period on an assist from Steve Spinzola. Bruce Cormier and Jerry Carr assisted on Barter's third period goals that gave him the trick. Mike Sarafeld finished off the Tewksbury scoring on assists from Ken Doyle.

The B's came back from a 1 - 0 deficit in their fourth game of the season to hand the Billerica team a 6 - 3 setback.

The Billerica team had the brief lead before Sarafeld tied it up on assists from Mark Dulgarian and Doyle.

Billerica pumped in two goals to take a 3 - 1 lead, but Tewksbury battled back at the 9:03 mark of the second period with five unanswered lamp lighters. Fred Malney got the scoring parade started on an assist from Greg Raposa and Mike Amorella followed on a helper from Scott Tremlett. Sarafeld pocketed the game winner with 34 seconds left in the second period. Dulgarian and Spinzola had the assists on the goal.

Malney scored with help from Raposa to give Tewksbury some breathing room in the third period. Billerica pulled its goaltender with 39 seconds left to play and Dulgarian scored his first goal in his first appearance in a league game. Mark played as an alternate for the Bantam B's. Walsh played a solid game in goal as he held the Billerica club at bay while the winners launched the comeback.

Vision clinic October 22

Mark the date on your calendar. Saturday, Oct. 22, will be the Wilmington Lions Club annual First Grade Vision Screening Clinic.

The clinic, which has helped to discover many serious eye problems in children, will be held by appointment only. There are no long waiting lines.

Testing involved distant acuity, color vision, focusing of eyes, stereopsis and visual skills like depth perception. It is considered to be the best form of clinical activity nationwide.

Ages five, six and seven are felt to be a very important vision checkpoint in a child's life.

The response from parents in other communities has been 90 to 95%. The response in Wilmington has not been as strong as last year's and is well below that of other communities.

All first grade children were given registration forms to take home. Parents who have not already responded and wish to make an appointment may call 658-2223.

Bits & Pieces

Tewksbury winner Kathleen DeStefano, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond DeStefano of Kent St., Tewksbury has recently placed fourth in a field of over 3000 in a Boston Globe sponsored photography contest.

Kathleen's photograph of her younger sister, in bed with chickenpox, very sadly clutching a favorite doll was awarded the fourth prize of $100.

Selectman McNeil's resignation letter

Joseph McNeill, chairman of the Tewksbury selectmen resigned, Tuesday evening, as chairman, following a long and difficult discussion on several items, one of them being the subject of loam, and another the resignation of the town's DPW administrator.

The following is the text of Mr. McNeill's resignation statement.

Fellow Selectmen: Ladies and Gentlemen: In my acceptance speech as Chairman six months ago, I promised to lend my knowledge and experience to the new members of the Board of Selectmen and to work with them for the good of our community. I have kept my word. I also promised to support no special interest groups and to fight vigorously against any such policies. Recent support of contract demands made by the Police Union, given by other board members, for reasons known to them, has resulted in a cost to the taxpayers of over $258,000. For the last six months this type of patronage has continued by three members with little or no regard for the taxpayers who have to support our form of town government.

Also in the last six months I have watched these same three men all but destroy our present D.P.W. system with their constant interference in this important department. Two years ago the Board of Selectmen changed the requirements for the position of D.P.W. Superintendent and the town meeting agreed with the changes. That Board of Selectmen membership represented 50 years of political experience as a base for making their judgments and decisions. This new Board of Selectmen, with its infinite wisdom and experience, (Mr. Hallisey one and one half years; Mr. Morris six months; Mr. Trueba six months) have a grand total of two and one half years of experience as Selectmen, but apparently know better than their predecessors did. For the last six months I have watched criticism leveled at the D.P.W. and at the Superintendent on a bi-weekly basis, then on a weekly basis and then on a daily basis by these three men. Mr. Trueba has been the spearhead of this unwarranted criticism which has even degenerated to a level of personal insults by Mr. Trueba against the D.P.W. Superintendent. Although Mr. Hallisey and Mr. Morris did not level these personal insults, they never did anything to attempt to stop them, in fact, by their votes they have supported Mr. Trueba and have condoned these deplorable actions.

Tewksbury's politics have taken a step backward with the resurrection of gutter type politics. Therefore these men have no one else to blame but themselves for the consequences that result. I cannot support this style of politics and I have had plenty of experience in fighting them. I therefore feel I can best serve our townspeople by fighting this style of politics rather than agreeing with them and hereby tender my resignation as Chairman of the Board of Selectmen so that I can better serve the townspeople of Tewksbury.

Respectfully yours,
Joseph A. McNeil

Deborah Scarano makes a field trip

Wilmington's Deborah Scarano has recently returned from a most unusual field trip.

While a student at North Shore Community College, Deborah took part in a program called Project Discovery. She and 42 other high school, college and continuing education students spent the summer touring Europe and receiving college credit for their experiences.

Project Discovery is a joint effort of North Shore Community College and the European Seminar Association. Director George Weston said that this was the third summer for the field trip.

"It is intended for students who want to gain knowledge as they travel throughout Europe," he said. "They are required to read several books and articles even before departure, keep a written journal and attend on-site lectures and discussions while in Europe."

"The trip is not a luxury tour," he continued. "Our accommodations consist primarily of youth hostels, some camping, and a few small hotels, but we see a lot of Europe."

One of the places they visited was the notorious Dachau Concentration Camp in West Germany, where they talked with Pastor Christian Reger, formerly Prisoner Number 26,067. They also visited with Lord Mayor Manfred Rommel, chief executive of Stuttgart, Germany; toured Deborah Scarano ponders English tradition at the Queen's horseguards.

Boston, England with former Mayor John J. Parker; and camped on the bluffs overlooking the Normandy Beaches in France.

"I had a wonderful time!" said Deborah.

A 1973 graduate of Wilmington High School, she is currently employed in the Art Department of Sweetheart Plastics. She lives with her parents at 150 Church Street.

Slides of this year's trip will accompany a November 18 discussion of next summer's program at the college in Beverly. Additional information may be obtained from North Shore Community College's European Seminar Office, 275 Cabot Street, Beverly.

Job placement center at Wilmington High School

The Massachusetts Division of Employment Security (DES) along with Anthony DeLuca, business manager of Wilmington Public Schools, has provided a job placement center in the Career and Occupational Education Department. In an effort to seek part-time and full-time employment, Mrs. Donna Jenkins will be interviewing and referring students, graduates, townspeople, as well as high-school dropouts to seek out job opportunities. The DES has provided in the high school a branch of the Woburn Job Service Center to maintain this goal.

Anyone who would like an appointment to see Mrs. Jenkins Wednesday through Friday may call Alfred Hamblen's office at 658-4463, ext. 21. Mrs. Jenkins will be assisting the students on the Work Study program. These students attend classes half a day and work a half day. This program will require a visitation to each student's employer to insure that each student is receiving quality training and a check on each student to see if they are maintaining an adequate academic program at the school. Seventy-five per cent of these students on this program continue working with respective employers after graduation.

Employers looking for applicants may place a job order with Mrs. Jenkins at Wilmington High School from Wednesday through Friday at 658-4463 ext. 21). Jobs are especially in need for students 14 - 18 years of age, i.e., babysitting, housekeeping, lawn care, snow shoveling, etc. Anyone who could use a dependable student in that age bracket is urged to contact the Occupational Education Department.

Patty Johnson, (right) of Grove Avenue, Wilmington, confers with job placement staff Mrs. Donna Jenkins and Anthony DeLuca.

An Answered Prayer

Thank God, for the dignity of beauty of self. Not self-seeking, but the wonder of being, simply being - oneself. We are God-created. God watched. God knew. In knowing you, I need not ask "Who am I?" In knowing you, I know myself. "If we held firm, we shall reign with Christ." 2 Timothy 2:8-13

Blaisdell theft

WHS defensive back Bill Blaisdell looks for an opening upfield after intercepting a pass thrown by Ranger quarterback Kevin Bradley. Blaisdell returned the theft 23 yards.

Cross country

Runners stun Billerica, rip Lawrence

Coach Frank Kelley called it "one of the biggest cross country wins in the school's history" last Friday (Oct. 7) as the WHS cross country team dropped Billerica from the ranks of the unbeaten with an impressive 25-30 MVC decision at Wilmington.

Billerica's Jeff Cullinane copped the top spot with a 13:03 time to miss the record for the 2.6 mile course by five seconds. The Wildcats grabbed four of the next five spots however as WHS had four boys run the course in under 14 minutes for the first time this year.

Dana Spring took second with a 13:33 time followed by John Mucci in third at 13:45. Greg Hancox finished fifth at 13:50 and Gary Gable was in the sixth spot at 13:56. Ken Aalerud wound up the Wilmington runners in the top 10 with a 14:11 time good enough for ninth place.

The junior varsity came up with a better showing last week before dropping a 19-38 decision. Mark Siciliano (10:03) led the junior varsity runners in second place. The freshmen continued their fine performance this season with a 24-34 win over Billerica. Mike Cassidy led the way with a first place finish at 10:24 followed by Keith Ford in fourth at 10:35 and Mike Stokes fifth at 10:41.

Pete Arvanitus was the fifth place man at 10:50 while Rick Maio was eighth at 11:06 followed by Dave Virtus in ninth at 11:09.

Monday Wilmington celebrated the holiday with a 16-47 varsity romp over winless Lawrence. The Wildcats took eight of the top 10 spots with Spring (11:31), Mucci (11:37), Hancox (12:03) and Gable (12:04) sweeping the first four positions. Spring came in one second shy of the course (2.4 miles) record.

Aalerud was the sixth man at 12:23 followed by Kevin Cogan (12:27), Vin Iocco (12:32), and Bill Cunningham (12:37) in the top 10.

Lawrence has no freshmen squad so the WHS frost runners ran with the junior varsity and the combined forces easily won the meet. Al Cabral (7:53), Mike Cassidy (frost-7:58), Scott Sullivan (8:03), Ken Warren (8:09), and John McDonald (8:15) placed in the top five for Wilmington.

Keith Ford nailed down sixth place at 8:18 followed by Bob Butler (8:22) and Virtus (frost-8:26) in seventh and eighth places. Joe Murphy finished 10th at 8:29.

The varsity improved its record to 3-0 last week with the freshmen undefeated at 5-0 and the junior varsity sporting a 2-3 mark. This Saturday morning (Oct. 15) Kelley's team travels to White Stadium for the Catholic Memorial meet that involves between 30 and 40 teams.

Coach Kelley thinks that this could be the best cross country team he's ever coached at WHS. Only Austin Prep and Tewksbury appear capable of shortcutting the Wildcats' drive to the top of the conference.

Donkey basketball

On Tuesday night, October 10, the WHS junior class will sponsor its annual Donkey Basketball game in the gym, pitting members of the faculty against top student athletes. Tap-off time is 7:30 and tickets are $2.00 for the public and $1.00 for students. The junior class has already initiated the school year with a successful car wash and with a fall dance attended by 600 students. The Donkey Basketball game promises to be popular so those interested are urged to arrive early. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Survive last second scare

Wildcats struggle past Methuen

For the second week in a row the Methuen Rangers gave someone a football game and Wilmington had to wait until the last second ticked off before the outcome was decided as the Wildcats just got by coach Larry Klima's club 6-0 at Methuen.

The win left Wilmington in an MVC log jam at 2-1 (2-1-1 overall) behind unbeaten Dracut (3-0).

The defense as it has done all season hung tough - setting up the lone score and shutting down two Ranger scoring chances.

The offense is where the problems are as the Wildcats were forced to punt seven times and didn't pick up a first down until late in the third quarter.

In the first half the closest either team came to scoring was the 37 yard line. Defensive back Bill Blaisdell intercepted a pass and returned it 23 yards. The remainder of the first half was a punter's duel.

The third quarter opened as the second left off with both teams exchanging punts.

On Methuen's second possession Sal Carbone tore the ball from Frank Reilly's hands at the Ranger 24 yard line.

Seven consecutive carries by Tim Moran accounted for the only score of the game as Moran bulled in from the one with 1:05 left in the quarter.

Tom Carroll's point after attempt failed as it skimmed the right goal post.

The Rangers then appeared to be mounting a march of their own as quarterback Kevin Bradley scampered 24 yards to the Wildcat 38. Linebacker Dave Rounds picked off Bradley's next pass to end the threat at the Wilmington 44.

The Cats on the ensuing series marched 34 yards in 11 plays to the Methuen 34 before punting to give the Rangers the ball at Methuen's three yard line.

The defense held for three downs, but a controversial call on a fair catch gave Methuen a second chance to punt from their endzone. On this punt the Wildcats roughed Bradley to give the Rangers new life at their 17.

An 11 yard pass play, and a 10 yard run put the ball on the 38 before Kevin Tarr swept left end for 53 yards on the next play down to the Wildcat 10. John Fahey saved a Methuen touchdown when he ran Tarr out of bounds.

Fahey was the last WHS defender to have a shot at stopping the speedy Tarr. Three pass incompletions, the final one being knocked away by Rounds, gave Wilmington the win.

The freshmen and JV teams had an easier time. Coach Tildsley's frosh ran up a 28-0 lead before the second units gave up two fourth quarter touchdowns for the final 28-14 score. Matti Phillips and Mark Boudreau both had fine afternoons rushing. The Freshmen offensive line played well.

The junior varsity on Monday blanked Methuen 19-0 for their first win.

Saturday Wilmington plays host to tough Billerica who upset Tewksbury last Saturday 21-16. Game time is 1:30.

Both the freshmen and junior varsity squads journey to Billerica for Friday and Monday contests at 3:30 p.m.

WHS girls hold top spot

The Wilmington High School field hockey team maintained their grip on first place in the MVC with a pair of wins last week. Wednesday (Oct. 5) the girls topped Billerica 2-0 behind a pair of Cheryl Cushing goals. Friday (Oct. 7) the girls cruised past Tewksbury 4-1.

Cushing got the WHS offense started at the 4:55 mark when she deflected a drive by senior captain Ann Gillis. The Redmen girls tied the game at the 19 minute mark on a breakaway goal by Linda Doherty. Cushing scored her second goal of the game with two minutes left in the half to give WHS the lead that they never relinquished. Janet Zambarnardi picked up the assist on the second Cushing score.

Outstanding passing by Brenda Burns and Zambarnardi to Cushing set up the Wildcat stars' third goal at the 11:50 mark of the second half. Denise Dorval wrapped up the scoring when she drove home the fourth goal with 30 seconds left in the game. Wilmington now sports a 6-1-0 mark for first place in the conference while Tewksbury fell to 1-4-2 on the season. Cushing leads the WHS scoring parade with eight goals and one assist. Zambarnardi is close by with six goals to go along with three assists.
